

Youth & Kids Development

Leadership Programs

Offsite Training Camps

Offsite training camps are tailor-made to develop our future leaders. With the focus on outdoor activities like wild camping, hiking and high-level adventure challenges, participants will be able to understand the crucial attributes for a successful leader and transform them into practice. Other intangible values such as passion, motivation, team collaboration and support will also be cultivated.

